

Discussion Questions from Sunday, July 19th, 2026

1) Read Matthew 10:5–15. How did the Lord speak to you? What was something new that you learned?

2) What do you think it means to be an ambassador for Christ in your everyday life? Where has God placed you right now to represent Him?

3) Jesus intentionally sent the disciples in a way that taught them dependence upon Him rather than self-sufficiency. Why do you think God often allows us to feel inadequate before using us?

4) At the end of the message, four principles emerged. Which one speaks to you most today, and why?

- God uses ordinary people.
- The gospel message never changes.
- Ministry is accomplished by God's power.
- My responsibility is obedience; the results belong to God.

Spend time praying for one another.
